SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Defendant shall be on Home Detention for the first twelve (12) months of the five (5) year period of Supervised Release. While on Home Detention, Defendant shall be in her place of residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and such other times as may be specifically authorized by the Probation Office. Defendant shall be subject to electronic monitoring at the Defendant's expense, if the Defendant can afford to pay for it, in the discretion of the Probation Office.
2. The Defendant shall pay restitution to the victims identified in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of this Judgment in an amount totaling $266,000.00. Payments shall be submitted to the United States District Court, Clerk's Office, Eighth Floor, 801 Broadway, Nashville, Tennessee 37203. Restitution is due immediately. Should there be an unpaid balance when supervision commences, the Defendant shall pay the remaining restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of the Defendant's gross monthly income. No interest shall accrue. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), the Defendant shall notify the Court and United States Attorney of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect ability to pay.
3. The Defendant is prohibited from owning, carrying or possessing firearms, ammunition, destructive devices or other dangerous weapons.
4. The Defendant shall participate in a program of drug testing and substance abuse treatment which may include a 30-day inpatient treatment program followed by up to 90 days in a community correction center at the direction of the Probation Officer. The Defendant shall pay all or part of the cost for substance abuse treatment if the United States Probation Office determines the Defendant has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
5. The Defendant shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the Probation Officer. The Defendant shall pay all or part of the cost for mental health treatment if the Probation Officer determines the Defendant has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
6. The Defendant shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
7. The Defendant shall participate in a money management program and shall complete a written monthly budget to submit to the Probation Officer each month, as directed by the United States Probation Office.
8. The Defendant shall not incur new debt or open additional lines of credit without the prior approval of the United States Probation Office. The Defendant is not prohibited from taking out college student loans, but shall get prior approval from the Probation Office to ensure the loans are used for college related expenses and are in reasonable amounts.
9. The Defendant is barred from engaging in employment where she has any fiduciary responsibilities and shall not be employed at any financial institution.
10. The Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the Probation Officer.
